

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A media source has a determination unit to determine a play-out time offset and a common play-out time of a media data packet by adding the determined play-out time offset to a current time. In addition, the media source has a sending unit to send out time-stamped media data packets to one or more receiving media sinks, a timestamp of a time-stamped media data packet indicating the common play-out time of the media data packet.